applause.

Judge Terrell, who was to have addressed the reunion, appeared and begged the Rangers to excuse him on account of illness, saying that he regretted his inability to address the men who had served Texas so long and so well.

Mrs. Dan Roberts of New Mexico and Mrs. McNelly of Austin, also Mrs. M. M. Kenney of Austin, were entitled to sents on the stage and cheered by the Rangers.

Dallas was selected as the next place of meeting over Velasco by a vote of 22 to 17.

Colonel Will Lambert announced that The Houston Post wanted all the reminiscences and sketches it was possible to get, together with a picture of each Ranger contributing a sketch for publication in The Post. A resolution was passed to the effect that all papers so prepared by members of the Ranger service should belong to this organization and remain in the custody of the adjutant.

Resolutions thanking the ladies for their presence, thanking Judge Terrell, thanking the city of Velasco for its invitation, thanking John Orr for the use of his ball, and thanking the citisens of Austin and others for their assistance in organising this, the first reunion of the "Texas Ranger Battallon" were passed.

The meeting then adjourned to the sidewalk in front of the board of trade, where a phetograph was taken of the entire battalion in a group. The members then boarded care for the dam, where the day was pleasantly spent plenicking and awapping reminiscences of the old days when the Texas Rangers guarded the homes and lives of the people who were the pioneers of civilization on the frontiers of Texas.

There was a large attendance at Zoopark, where the visiting Rangers were furnished a superb and bountiful dinner. Timely and appropriate addresses were made by Hon. F. R. Lubbock, Captain M. M. Kenney, Captain W. C. Walah, General "Gotch" Hardeman, A. W. Brady of Dewitt county and Rev. Dr. Jones of Richmond, Va., chaplain of the United Confederate Veterans.

MRS. GEICK THROWN PROM A BUG. GY AND BADLY HURT.

Has Been Unconscious Since the Accident-Protracted Meeting Begun-Cases in the Courts.

Brenham, Texas, October 4.-Last evening at about 7 o'clock Mr. Christian Wiede and his sister, Mrs. Geick, were driving in a buggy from Brenham to their homes in Wiedeville. At the old Rippetoe place Mr. Wiede made a bad drive and his buggy struck Mr. Rene's wagon with the result that the buggy was overturned and broken and both Mr. Welde and Mrs. Gelck were thrown out.

Both are badly cut about the head. One of Mrs. Geick's wrists were broken, and she was so badly hurt about the head and body that she was unconscious when picked up and has not regained consciousness.

Dr. James Bartlett and Dr. E. Becker were sent for and responded promptly.

Child Awfully Burned.

Navasuta, Texas, October 4.-Gladys. Mrs. F. W. Crutchfield, was frightfully burned shortly after 8 o'clock Saturday night, and at this writing the life of the sweet little body is despaired of. At the lime of the occurrence the father was in town and Mrs. Crutchfield had stepped into the back yard a moment, when she heard a crash, and running into the room dis-covered the lamp on the floor and the clothing of the babe ablaze. Quick as thought she threw herself over the child and smothered the flames with her dress, though she barned badly one of her hands though she barned badly one of her hands in the operation. She ran to a neighbor for assistance and soon everything that could be done was called upon to relieve the little tot. Gladys was just at that stage when she took delight in walking about and investigating circumstaces whenever she pleased. The lighted lamp was sitting upon a scarf on a small table. The child caught the ornament and giving it a pull precipitated the sad event. Almost the entire body is most severely burned, while one arm seems worse off than other parts, being burned black.

Judge Lewis Commits Spicide.

San Antonio, Texas, October 4 .- Judge ohn T. Lewis, a well known attorney of this city, committed suicide at an early hour this morning. He left home in his buggy at 4 o'clock, stating that he was going to look up a pasture. Two hours later his dead body was found hanging from his buggy with his brains blown out by a pistol which he had borrowed the day by a pistol which he had borrowed the day before.

The deceased was a native of Missouri, and had lived here six years. He was an independent candidate for the office of county judge in the last county election. Judge Lewis in the past few days had suffered severe business reverses and it is believed that these preyed on his mind until he decided to take his swn life. He borrowed the gun on the plea that he was looking for trouble with another party.

People still continue to flock to the health office in the City hall for disinfectants. The supply is running short, but as soon as it is exhausted more will be purchased. Complaints relative to unsanitary places in the city are becoming daily less frequent. The city is in an almost perfect sanitary condition and Dr. Fisher says he proposes to keep it so.

The budget adopted by the city council appropriated $19,456 to run the health deappropriated $19,456 to run the health de-partment for one year. Out of this amount must be paid the salary of the health phy-sician, chief inspector, superintendent of drays, burlals and paupera and disinfec-tants, fourteen drays and a man at the dump for six months and eighteen drays and a fan at the dump for six months. The city council appropriated $10,000 from the emergency fund to put the city in a sanitary condition. Of this amount he little 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and $3563.50 has been expended for extra drays and labor employed in cleaning the city In this is not included the salaries of the quarantine inspectors.

REYMERSHOFFER ELEVATOR.

Because of the general relaxation of quarantine restrictions throughout this section of the State, work on the new Reymershoffer elevator will be more rapidly pushed until the mammoth new structure is completed. Because of the rigid quarantine at several points, and mistake on the part of the Illinois Central railroad in attempting to ship some of the machinery by way of New Orleans, Attle progress has been made, compara-

Attle progress has been made, comparatively, during the past two weeks.

C. S. McFarlane, who represents the McDonald engineering company of Chicago, which is putting in the machinery, stated this morning that both the lumber and machinery held back by quarantine was coming as fast as it was needed. The conveyer he stated, will be done in about six weeks, and when it is completed the elevator will be ready for use. The chief cause of delay in the building of the conveyor has been in the insulity of the railroads to handle the lumber needed, but, that drawback having been overcome, there is nothing to now hinder early completion.

but, that drawback having been overcome, there is nothing to now hinder early completion.

The shipment by way of New Orleans of a large consignment of stay bolts by the illinois Central has prevented the putting in place of machinery. When Mr. McFarlane ordered the stay bolts he expressly stipulated that they must not come through the district infected by yellow fever, asserting that if shipment was made by way of the Crescent City quarantine inspectors would surely insist
of blacksmiths and the bolts are being certain that no disease germs would be carried in the freight. But the fillinois Central failed to heed Mr. McFarlane's order, and when the bolts reached Bolivar they were promptly held there. Upon learning that the shipment was held at Bolivar Mr. McFarlane engaged a number of blacksmiths and the boltsare being made here is fast as they are needed.

It is likely that all of the machinery that remains to be shipped will come by way of New York, being shipped either by rail or water from Chicago to New York and from that point to Calveston on the Morgao line stesimers. By this route the freight rates will be less than if an all rail route was followed. All the machinery yet to come is now ready at Chicago for immediate shipment.

Tragedy Near Edna.

Edna, Texas, October 4 .- Saturday even ing about 8 o'clock Homer Herring shot a man named Clayton, about two miles porth of Edna. Two balls from the pistol of Herring took effect in Clayton's head. The one shot that proved fatal entered the skull just above the left ear, passing through the head and lodging above the right ear. The other ball struck the skull about two inches back of and above the first wound, and ranged around the head under the skin.
Cityton and Herring had a difficulty Saturday evening, and Clayton, it is reported, had threatened to kill Herring on ported, had threatened to kill Herring on sight.

When they met Clayton pulled his pistel and fired. The same instant Herring knocked the pistel saide and pulled his own pistel, firing four shots with the above effect.

Clayton died Sunday morning. Herring came to town and surrendered to the officers at once. He recently came to this county from North Texas.

Clayton leaves a wife and children. This killing, connected with other events that been reported from here last week, makes it a week full of sensation.

THE ANTI-TRUST CASES.

Attorney General Crane will leave to morrow for Washington to represent the State in the anti-trust cases, which will come before the United States supreme court. The history of these cases in brief is as follows: Several parties were indicted by the McLennan county grand jury for violating the anti-trust law in connection with the Standard and Waters Pierce Oil companies. Judge Swayne, a Federal dis-trict judge of Florida, was brought here, and sitting as a circuit judge under ha-beas corpus took the prisoners away from the State court and discharged them on the the State court and discharged them on the grounds that the statute under which tacy were arrested was void and that they could not get a trial in the State court, although nowhere in defendants' petition is it al-leged that they ever asked to be tried. The State, in the name of the sheriff of McLennan county, appealed from Judge Swayne's decision to the supreme court of Swayne's decision to the supreme court of the United States. The points relied on by the State are, first, that the circuit court of the United States had no jurisdiction, in that the facts did not authorize said circuit court to take the prisoners from the State court and thus prevent their trial by the latter court, and, second, that the statute under which defendants were indicated and arrested is not in conflict with the Federal Constitution. The defendants are represented by Judge George Clark of Waco and Judge J. D. Johnson of St. Louis and the case is set for the 11th inst.

his farm at Shepton, this county. The no-tice recounts that the neighbors of that community have formed themselves into a band to rid the vicinity of negroes, and gives them until Christmas to move out. The note is signed, "Yours, etc., etc.," and threatens to dynamite the buildings at the end of the limit given should the negroes still be occupying them, and further says, "If they ain't gone by that time you will hear them crying for rocks and mountains to fall on them and hide them from the face of the white man." Mr. Shepherd says the negroes in question are industrious and inoffensive, and he considers the threat un-grounded. World's Champion Pedestrian.
